

2020 SELFIE SCAVENGER HUNT

#1

Visit a boat ramp in Broadwater County that has a sign about Aquatic Invasive Species. Snap a selfie with the sign.

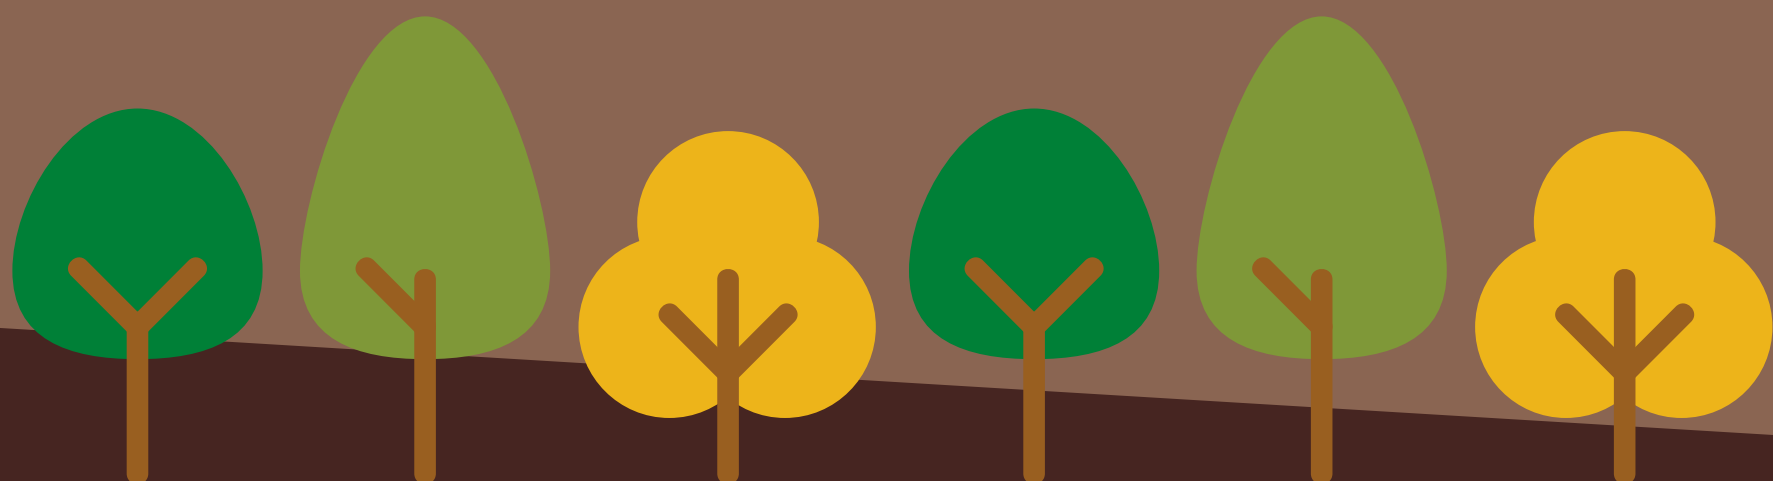

#2

Visit the statue commemorating the Deep Creek Restoration Project on Hwy 12. Snap a Selfie at the Site.

#3

What is a Riparian Zone? Learn the definition then snap a selfie in a Riparian Zone.

#4

BCD writes 310 permits for Perennial Streams. Snap a selfie at your favorite Perennial Stream.

#5

Find a noxious weed near you. Pull that sucker out and snap a selfie with it. Then toss it in the trash!

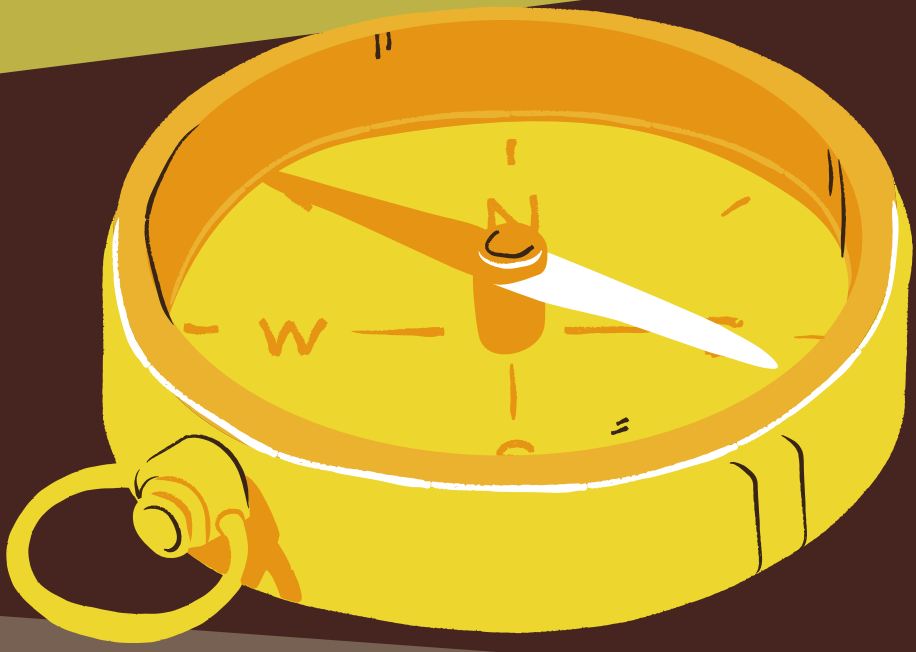

#6

Get Outside! Go for a hike in Broadwater County and snap a selfie at the trailhead sign.

#7

Visit a Lewis and Clark Historical Site in the county and snap a selfie!

#8

Check out the Missouri River Conditions page on our website. Screenshot the page and tell us what the Missouri River @ Toston streamflow is by scrolling on the picture.

#9

Broadwater County agriculture is a vital part of our community. Snap a selfie with what ag represents to you.

#10

Learn more about aquatic macroinvertebrates. Visit a nearby stream, turn up a rock, and snap a selfie with any aquatic macroinvertebrate you find!

